

What is racial discrimination?

Racial discrimination is the term used broadly to describe any different treatment because of racial and ethnic origin, skin colour, nationality, descent and provenance territory.

What is meant by the equal treatment principle?

Principle of equality means the absence of any kind of discrimination, whether direct or indirect, or of harassment.

Useful link: <https://www.cicdr.pt/>